Profile

Abigail has a particular interest in Special Educational Needs Law and has chosen to develop a specialism in this field. Abigail aims to be supportive and understanding of the specific pressures on clients in this area of law whilst providing a clear and objective analysis of their case. She is willing to accept instructions directly from members of the public, in appropriate cases, under the Bar's public access scheme.

Abigail spent her earlier years of practise as a personal injury and general civil litigation practitioner and continues to have an interest in these areas.
